

How can you prove that the file in question is on my computer?

Written by Administrator
Friday, 15 May 2009 13:37 -

---

We do not claim that your computer was used to commit the infringing act (although we do not exclude this possibility), nor do we claim that you downloaded our client's work. Our claim is that your internet connection was used to make our client's work available via one or more P2P networks. The file may not, therefore, be on your computer.